

Setting a goal

We want to help you get the most you can out of this program for improving your mood. Please take a moment to think about the most important goal you'd like to work towards over the next six weeks. This doesn't have to be a big goal, just something that you feel is important and will help to improve the way you feel.

In the next six weeks, I would like to work on the following:
